

Maha Khaliq Design London is seeking a highly creative and visually driven marketing professional to support the growth of her luxury Interior Design Studio across digital platforms.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone passionate about interiors, architecture, hospitality, fashion and visual storytelling to work closely with an established designer who specialises in high-end residential and hospitality projects.

The role would suit a proactive, aesthetically aware individual with strong social media instincts and a genuine interest in luxury design and branding.

Responsibilities include:

- Managing and growing Instagram, LinkedIn and Pinterest accounts
- Creating and scheduling engaging social media content
- Assisting with photography, reels, stories and project launches
- Managing image library
- Updating website portfolio projects and journal content
- Co-ordinating and styling project photography
- Supporting marketing, PR outreach and brand development ensuring consistency across all business areas
- Researching trends, hospitality brands, suppliers and editorial opportunities
- Assisting with newsletters and presentation material to clients Help maintains a consistent visual identity across all platforms

The ideal candidate will have:

- Strong visual and graphic sensibility
- Interest in interiors, travel, hospitality and luxury lifestyle brands
- Experience with Instagram, Canva, Adobe Creative Suite and Keynote
- Excellent organisational and communication skills
- Confidence creating reels and short-form visual content
- A polished and detail-oriented approach
- Photography and editing skills are must

To apply, email info@arbuthnotandwheeler.com